Update August 2018 - Friends of R1:11

Dear friends,

Our prayers this month are concentrated on the team visit to Uganda from 5th to 24th August.

The team is being led by Rev. Jon Sermon (minister of Halesworth and North Lowestoft URCs) and Mrs. Rachel Bailey (a sixth form teacher from Newport, Isle of Wight). The other team members are Liz Hudson (member of Jon's former church in Chelmsford), Phoebe Thatcher (a young adult from Hythe, Hampshire and about to commence her university studies), Amy Walker-Pobjoy (a former student of Rachel's from the Isle of Wight, also hoping to go to university this autumn) and Stuart and Judy Woosnam (members of Jon's former church in Chelmsford). The team members vary widely in age but none, except Jon and Rachel, have been in Uganda before.

Please pray for all the practical arrangements to go smoothly, for good health and sleep, safe travel (they will be driving themselves), good relationships in the team and with all those they meet, fruitful ministry and for all to feel comfortable and be well used in Uganda. Please also pray for the families left at home and for Jon's churches (Halesworth and North Lowestoft) while their minister is away. Please pray using the programme below and attached map.

A further possible prayer aid/ method of information is for you to receive the photographic blog which Rachel will be producing during the trip. If you would like to receive this please let Chris know as soon as possible (contact details are above) and then look for email updates from Jackie Woodley (Chris's successor as administrator from next April). It should hopefully also be available on the Romans 1:11 website (www.romans111.org.uk).
